

THE BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES REGULATION ACT
(CHAPTER 316)

THE BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES (PRIVATE TRUST COMPANIES) REGULATIONS, 2007

The Governor of the Central Bank of The Bahamas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 24 of the Banks and Trust Companies Regulation Act, makes the following Regulations –

Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Banks and Trust Companies (Private Trust Companies) Regulations, 2007.

Interpretation. 2(1). In these Regulations -

Ch. 369. “Financial and Corporate Service Provider” means a licensee under the Financial and Corporate Service Providers Act;

“Special Director” means a person (who need not necessarily be resident in The Bahamas) of good reputation who also possesses at least five years' experience in a discipline relevant to the administration of trusts, which, in this context shall include one or more of law, finance, commerce, investment management or accountancy.

Ch. 316. "the Act" means the Banks and Trust Companies Regulation Act;

Ch. 368. "transaction" has the same meaning as in the Financial Transactions Reporting Act.

(2) Any terms used in these regulations without definitions shall unless the context indicates otherwise, have the same meaning ascribed to those terms in the Act.

Exemption. 3(1). A private trust company is exempt from the requirements of section 3(2) of the Act if -

- (a) it complies with the definition of "private trust company" in section 2 of the Act;
- (b) it has a single Designating Instrument in the form specified in the First Schedule which designates the individual or individuals who shall be the Designated Person or Designated Persons in relation to that company; and

(c) it does not solicit trust business.

(2) A trust company which is exempt pursuant to sub-regulation 3(1) shall not be required to obtain a licence under section 4 of the Business Licence Act.

Chapter 329.

(3) A trust company which is exempt pursuant to subregulation 3(1) shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be referred to as a “private trust company” and such company shall also be exempt from the requirements of sections 5, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15 and 20 of the Act.

(4) Upon being appointed a Registered Representative of a private trust company, the Registered Representative shall

(a) within six months of the date of coming into force of these Regulations; or

(b) in the case of a company which has been incorporated under the Companies Act, 1992 or the International Business Companies

Ch. 309.

Act after the date of coming into force of these Regulations, within three months of its incorporation, certify to the Governor that the trust company qualifies for an exemption by virtue of the restriction specified in sub-paragraph (1):

Provided that the Governor may extend the time for such certification for such further period not exceeding twelve months as he thinks expedient.

(5) If a private trust company ceases at any time to meet the requirements of sub-regulation 3(1), its Registered Representative shall within seven days of such change, notify the Inspector in writing of such change.
