Liability of a legal entity.

6. Where an offence referred to under section 3 or 5 is committed by a person responsible for the management or control of an entity located or registered in The Bahamas or in any other way organized under the laws of The Bahamas, that entity, in circumstances where the person committed the offence while acting in that capacity, is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on information to a fine of $2,000,000 notwithstanding –

- (a) any criminal liability that may have been incurred by an individual that was directly involved in the commission of the offence; or
- (b) any civil or administrative sanction that may have been imposed by law.

Investigation.

7.(1) Where any person has reasonable grounds to suspect that funds or financial services are related to or are to be used to facilitate an offence under this Act, it shall be the duty of that person to report the matter to the Commissioner of Police.

(2) Where information is received from any source in or outside The Bahamas that a person who has committed or who is alleged to have committed an offence under this Act may be present in The Bahamas, the Commissioner of Police shall take such measures as may be necessary to investigate the facts contained in the information.

- (3) Where on investigation it is found that the person referred to in subsection (2) is in The Bahamas, the Commissioner of Police shall make a report to the Attorney General who shall take such measures as are necessary to prosecute the offender as the circumstances warrant.

(4) Where any person, referred to in subsection (1) fails to report as required under that subsection, that person is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on information to a fine of $250,000 or to imprisonment for a term of 5 years.

Rights of an offender.

8. A person against whom measures referred to in section 7(2) or 7(3) are taken is entitled to –

- (a) communicate without delay with the nearest appropriate representative of
 - (i) the State of which that person is a national;
 - (ii) the State which is otherwise entitled to protect that person's rights; or
 - (iii) where that person is a stateless person, the State in which that person ordinarily resides;
- (b) be visited by a representative of the relevant States referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (c) be informed of his rights referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).

Freezing of funds.

9.(1) Subject to subsection (4), the Court may where it is satisfied on the application by the Attorney-General that -

- (a) a person has been charged or is about to be charged with an offence under this Act;
- (b) a person has been declared a listed entity under this Act;
- (c) a request has been made by the appropriate authority of another State in accordance with section 17, in respect of a person-
 - (i) who has been charged or is about to be charged with an offence described in this Act; or

- (ii) in respect of whom there is reasonable suspicion that the person has committed an offence referred to in subparagraph (i);

make an order, in this Part referred to as a “freezing order”, freezing the funds in the possession of or under the control of that person.

(2) An application for a freezing order under subsection (1), may be made ex parte and shall be in writing and be accompanied by an affidavit stating -

- (a) where the person referred to in subsection (1) has been charged, the offence for which he is charged;
- (b) the person has been declared a listed entity under this Act;
- (c) where the person has not been charged, the grounds for -
 - (i) believing that the person committed the offence; or
 - (ii) having a reasonable suspicion that the person committed the offence;
- (d) a description of the funds in respect of which the freezing order is sought;
- (e) the name and address of the person who is believed to be in possession of the funds; and
- (f) the grounds for believing that the funds are related to or are used to facilitate an offence referred to in subsection (1) and that the funds are subject to the effective control of the person.

(3) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the Court shall require that -

- (a) the Order be published within such time and manner as the Court directs;
- (b) the applicant, within twenty-one days of the making of the Order, serve notice of the Order together with a copy of the Order on any person whom, in the opinion of the Court, appears to have an interest in the funds referred to in subsection (2); and

- (c) the person referred to in paragraph (b) or any other person that appears to have interest in the funds, be afforded an opportunity to be heard by the Court within such time as the Court determines, unless in respect of paragraph (b) the Court is of the opinion that giving such notice would result in the disappearance, dissipation or reduction in the value of the funds.

(4) Where an application for a freezing order made under subsection (1) is made as a result of a request from another State, the Court shall not make the order unless it is satisfied that reciprocal arrangements exist between The Bahamas and that other State whereby that other State is empowered to make a similar order in respect of a request for a freezing order from The Bahamas.

(5) The Court may, in making an order under subsection (1), give directions with regard to -

- (a) the duration of the freezing order; or
- (b) the disposal of the funds for the purpose of -
 - (i) determining any dispute relating to the ownership of or other interest in the funds or any part thereof;
 - (ii) its proper administration during the period of the freezing order;
 - (iii) the payment of debts incurred in good faith prior to the making of the order;
 - (iv) the payment of moneys to the person referred to in subsection (1) for the reasonable subsistence of that person and his family; or

- (v) the payment of the costs of the person referred to in subparagraph (iv) to defend criminal proceedings against him.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), a freezing order made under this section shall cease to have effect at the end of the period of six months after the order was made where the person against whom the order was made has not been charged with an offence under this Act within that period.

(7) An order made under subsection (1) may be renewed for a period not exceeding six months in each particular case but in no case shall the entire period of the order exceed eighteen months.

(8) A freezing order granted by the Court under this section shall not prejudice the rights of any third party acting in good faith.

(9) Where the Court makes an order for the administration of frozen funds the person charged with the administration of the funds is not liable for any loss or damage to the funds or for the costs of proceedings taken to establish a claim to the funds or to an interest in the funds unless the court in which the claim is made is of the opinion that the person has been guilty of negligence in respect of the taking of custody and control of the funds.

Forfeiture Order.

10.(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence section 3 or 5, the Attorney General may apply to the Court for a forfeiture order against the funds that are the subject of the offence.

(2) The court may upon application by the Attorney General, forfeit any funds of or in the possession or under the control of any person who is convicted of an offence of terrorism or any funds of that person that are the subject of a freezing order, unless it is proved that the funds did not derive from the commission by that person of an offence under section 3 or 5.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the burden of proof lies on the person who owns, or is in possession or control of, the funds.

(4) In determining whether or not any funds are derived from an offence under section 3 or 5, the standard of proof required for the purposes of subsection (2) is the same as in criminal proceedings and for the purposes of subsection (3) is the same as in civil proceedings.

(5) In making a forfeiture order the Court may give directions -

- (a) for the purposes of determining any dispute as to the ownership of or other interest in the funds or any part thereof; and
- (b) as to the disposal of the funds.

(6) Upon application to the Court by a person against whom a forfeiture order has been made under this section, the Court may order that an amount deemed by the Court to be the value of the funds so ordered to be forfeited, be paid by that person to the Court and upon satisfactory payment of that sum by that person the funds ordered to be forfeited shall be returned to him.

Sharing
forfeited
funds.

11.(1) The Government of The Bahamas may, pursuant to any forfeiture agreement with any State, share with that State on a reciprocal basis, the funds derived from forfeiture pursuant to this Act.

(2) Funds referred to under subsection (1) may be utilized by the Government of The Bahamas to compensate victims of the offences referred to under this Act.

Extradition.

12.(1) Where a person who has committed or is alleged to have committed an offence under this Act is present in The Bahamas and it is not intended to extradite that person, the Attorney General shall prosecute the offender for the offence.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, no person shall be extradited pursuant to this Act, where the Government of The Bahamas has substantial grounds for believing that a request for extradition for an offence under this Act has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person on account of that person's race, religion, nationality, ethnic origin or political opinion or that compliance with the request would be prejudicial to that person's rank or status for any of these reasons.

diction.

13. Where a person is alleged to have committed an offence under this Act, proceedings in respect of that offence may be commenced in The Bahamas where the alleged offence -

- (a) is committed by a citizen of The Bahamas;
- (b) was directed towards or resulted in the carrying out of an offence under this Act in The Bahamas or against a citizen of The Bahamas;
- (c) was directed towards or resulted in the carrying out of an offence under this Act against a State or government facility of The Bahamas outside The Bahamas;
- (d) was directed towards or resulted in the carrying out of an offence under this Act committed in an attempt to compel The Bahamas to do or refrain from doing any act;
- (e) was committed by a stateless person who is ordinarily resident in The Bahamas;
- (f) was committed on board an aircraft that -
 - (i) is operated by the Government of The Bahamas or a citizen of The Bahamas; or
 - (ii) is registered in The Bahamas;
- (g) was committed on board a vessel that is flying the flag of The Bahamas or is registered in The Bahamas; or
- (h) threatens the national security of The Bahamas.
